

‘RED FLAG’ Medications that cause most of adverse medications events

Warfarin (Antithrombotic agents)
Digoxin (Cardiac Glycosides)
Beta Blockers (Beta Blocking Agents)
NSAIDS
Opioids
Combinations of Anti-Hypertensives
Antiepileptics
Anti-Parkinson

Drugs used in Diabetes
Vasodilators used in Cardiac Disease
Antihypertensive and Diuretics in combination
Diuretics
Antineoplastic and Immunomodulators
Drugs for Obstructive Airway Disease
Muscle Relaxants, Centrally Acting
Muscle Relaxants, Directly Acting
Antimigraine agents

Psychoanaleptics
Antiarrhythmics Class I and III
Calcium Channel Blockers + Diuretics
Lyrica
Acetic Acid Derivatives – All Anti-inflammatory exc. other
Sleeping Medications